Deputy Head Teacher

LD14-LD18 currently £55064 pa-£60755 pa
Required from January 2019 or as soon as possible after

The Governors and Head Teacher are seeking a very special person for this newly created role. We are looking for an enthusiastic, creative, committed, dynamic and inspirational leader with the skills to motivate students and staff alike to achieve their maximum potential. The post holder will have a key role in leading the development of the school during our planned expansion.

If you:

- Have a history of outstanding leadership in an SEND environment or within a challenging main stream setting.
- Enjoy leading change
- Can manage challenging behaviour
- Have a history of effective teaching with hard to engage children
- Have the ability to communicate at all levels and to a range of audiences;
- Think young people deserve to be nurtured and respected
- Have strong interpersonal skills and the ability to take people with you
- Can support and care for a dedicated, committed and caring team of staff;
- can make a positive contribution to multi-agency working

Then we can offer you:

- bespoke CPD to support your career development
- opportunities to lead significant strategic projects
- opportunities to show your impact on school improvement
- work life balance through a managed workload
